FOOTBALL

"72" Quakers have only average record, 5-5.

Team's season itself far above average.

Three shutouts

Upset of state ranked and conference champ, Ashland.

Deflected pass caught by QB Turner and passed to Doughten for TD.

Come-from-behind triumph over hated Dover.

4-2 and second in conference, and 5 players on all C.C. team.

These are a few good things that happened.

1.

One of the toughest "Red and Black" schedules ever was made tougher by loss of starting QB and TB.

With no outstanding players, this year's Quakers played more as a team.

5-5 does not represent what this team was capable of.

Under Coach Jerry Dawson,
Quaker Harriers experience heartbreak season.

Winning one meet, losing the rest

By one or two points.

Hardly indicative of the work involved.

All is not drouth however as Captain Keith Bailey sets new course record of 10:11.

With several sophomores returning, victories should become a little less elusive in '73.

GOLF

After slow start, the golf team under Mr. Kaserman won six of their last ten matches. In Kaserman's first year, he organized largest schedule and team in the state. Many opponents were the best in this part of Ohio. Competition was keen as many boys played varsity. Karl Kimball, a sophomore, was the most consistent. Phil Neely shot the lowest score of the year.

The Quaker Track Team had an outstanding 1973 season, finishing second in the tough Cardinal Conference. The lone dual meet loss was by one point to East Liverpool, when the Quakers had several runners out with illness. Throughout the spring there were outstanding total team efforts, as well as great individual performances.

ma bands to combine or annual winter concert

Music directors and their students at Philadelphia High can think of no other way to celebrate the end of winter striking up the bands for a winter concert.

Three instrumental groups of Philadelphia will present a concert at 8:30 p.m. in the gymnasium. The groups are the Philharmonia and Larry C. Phillips' band, wind ensemble, and a stage band in a wide variety of styles that will appeal to all ages.

The concert band will play Montage (Patgenhorst), Cantique and Fara (W. McBeth), Trombones Triumphant (D. Kellner), which will feature the cluding a trumpet solo by Craig S. Geon.

For the finale, the concert band will be featured, playing a number of pieces which will be appreciated by those with a classical taste in music. The Great Overture of Kiev (M. Moussorgsky), providing a dynamic ending to a well-rounded, gratifying concert.

Announcers for the concert are Sherry Jenkins, Kyrus Wood, and Jane S. Henson, members of the band.

Admission is 50 cents for students and $1 for adults. Tickets may be purchased from any band member or at the door.

pet theater will be among the activities sponsored during the spring term of youth programs which will begin Saturday at the Tuscarawas County YMCA.

Scheduled classes are:

— Beginners cheerleading Saturdays from 10 to 10:45 a.m., six weeks, Y members $2 and non-members $4. The classes are for 2nd through 9th graders.

— In creative arts and crafts Saturdays from 9:15 a.m., six weeks, Y members $2 and non-members $3. Children may come and go to the craft room if they have gym and swim clothes.

YM meet at the Tuscarawas County MCA Saturday proved at least one thing and that's that the two-year-old county girls teams can compete with the best of them.

The girls, competing among 500 other swimmers from 13 other YMCAs throughout the district, finished in eighth place overall.

In the individual divisions, the cadets finished fourth, the intermediates eighth, preps 10th and juniors 12th.

The cadets' strong showing came on the strength of an outstanding performance by Lisa West who captured a third place in the 50-yard freestyle and a second place in the 50-yard backstroke.

Faces Personalities
 Students and teachers all—
 Together for a year.
 Boredom we share
 Excitement we share
 Disgust, enthusiasm, knowledge,
 Moments of life we share.
 This is the system,
 Education, they call it—
 Give and receive.

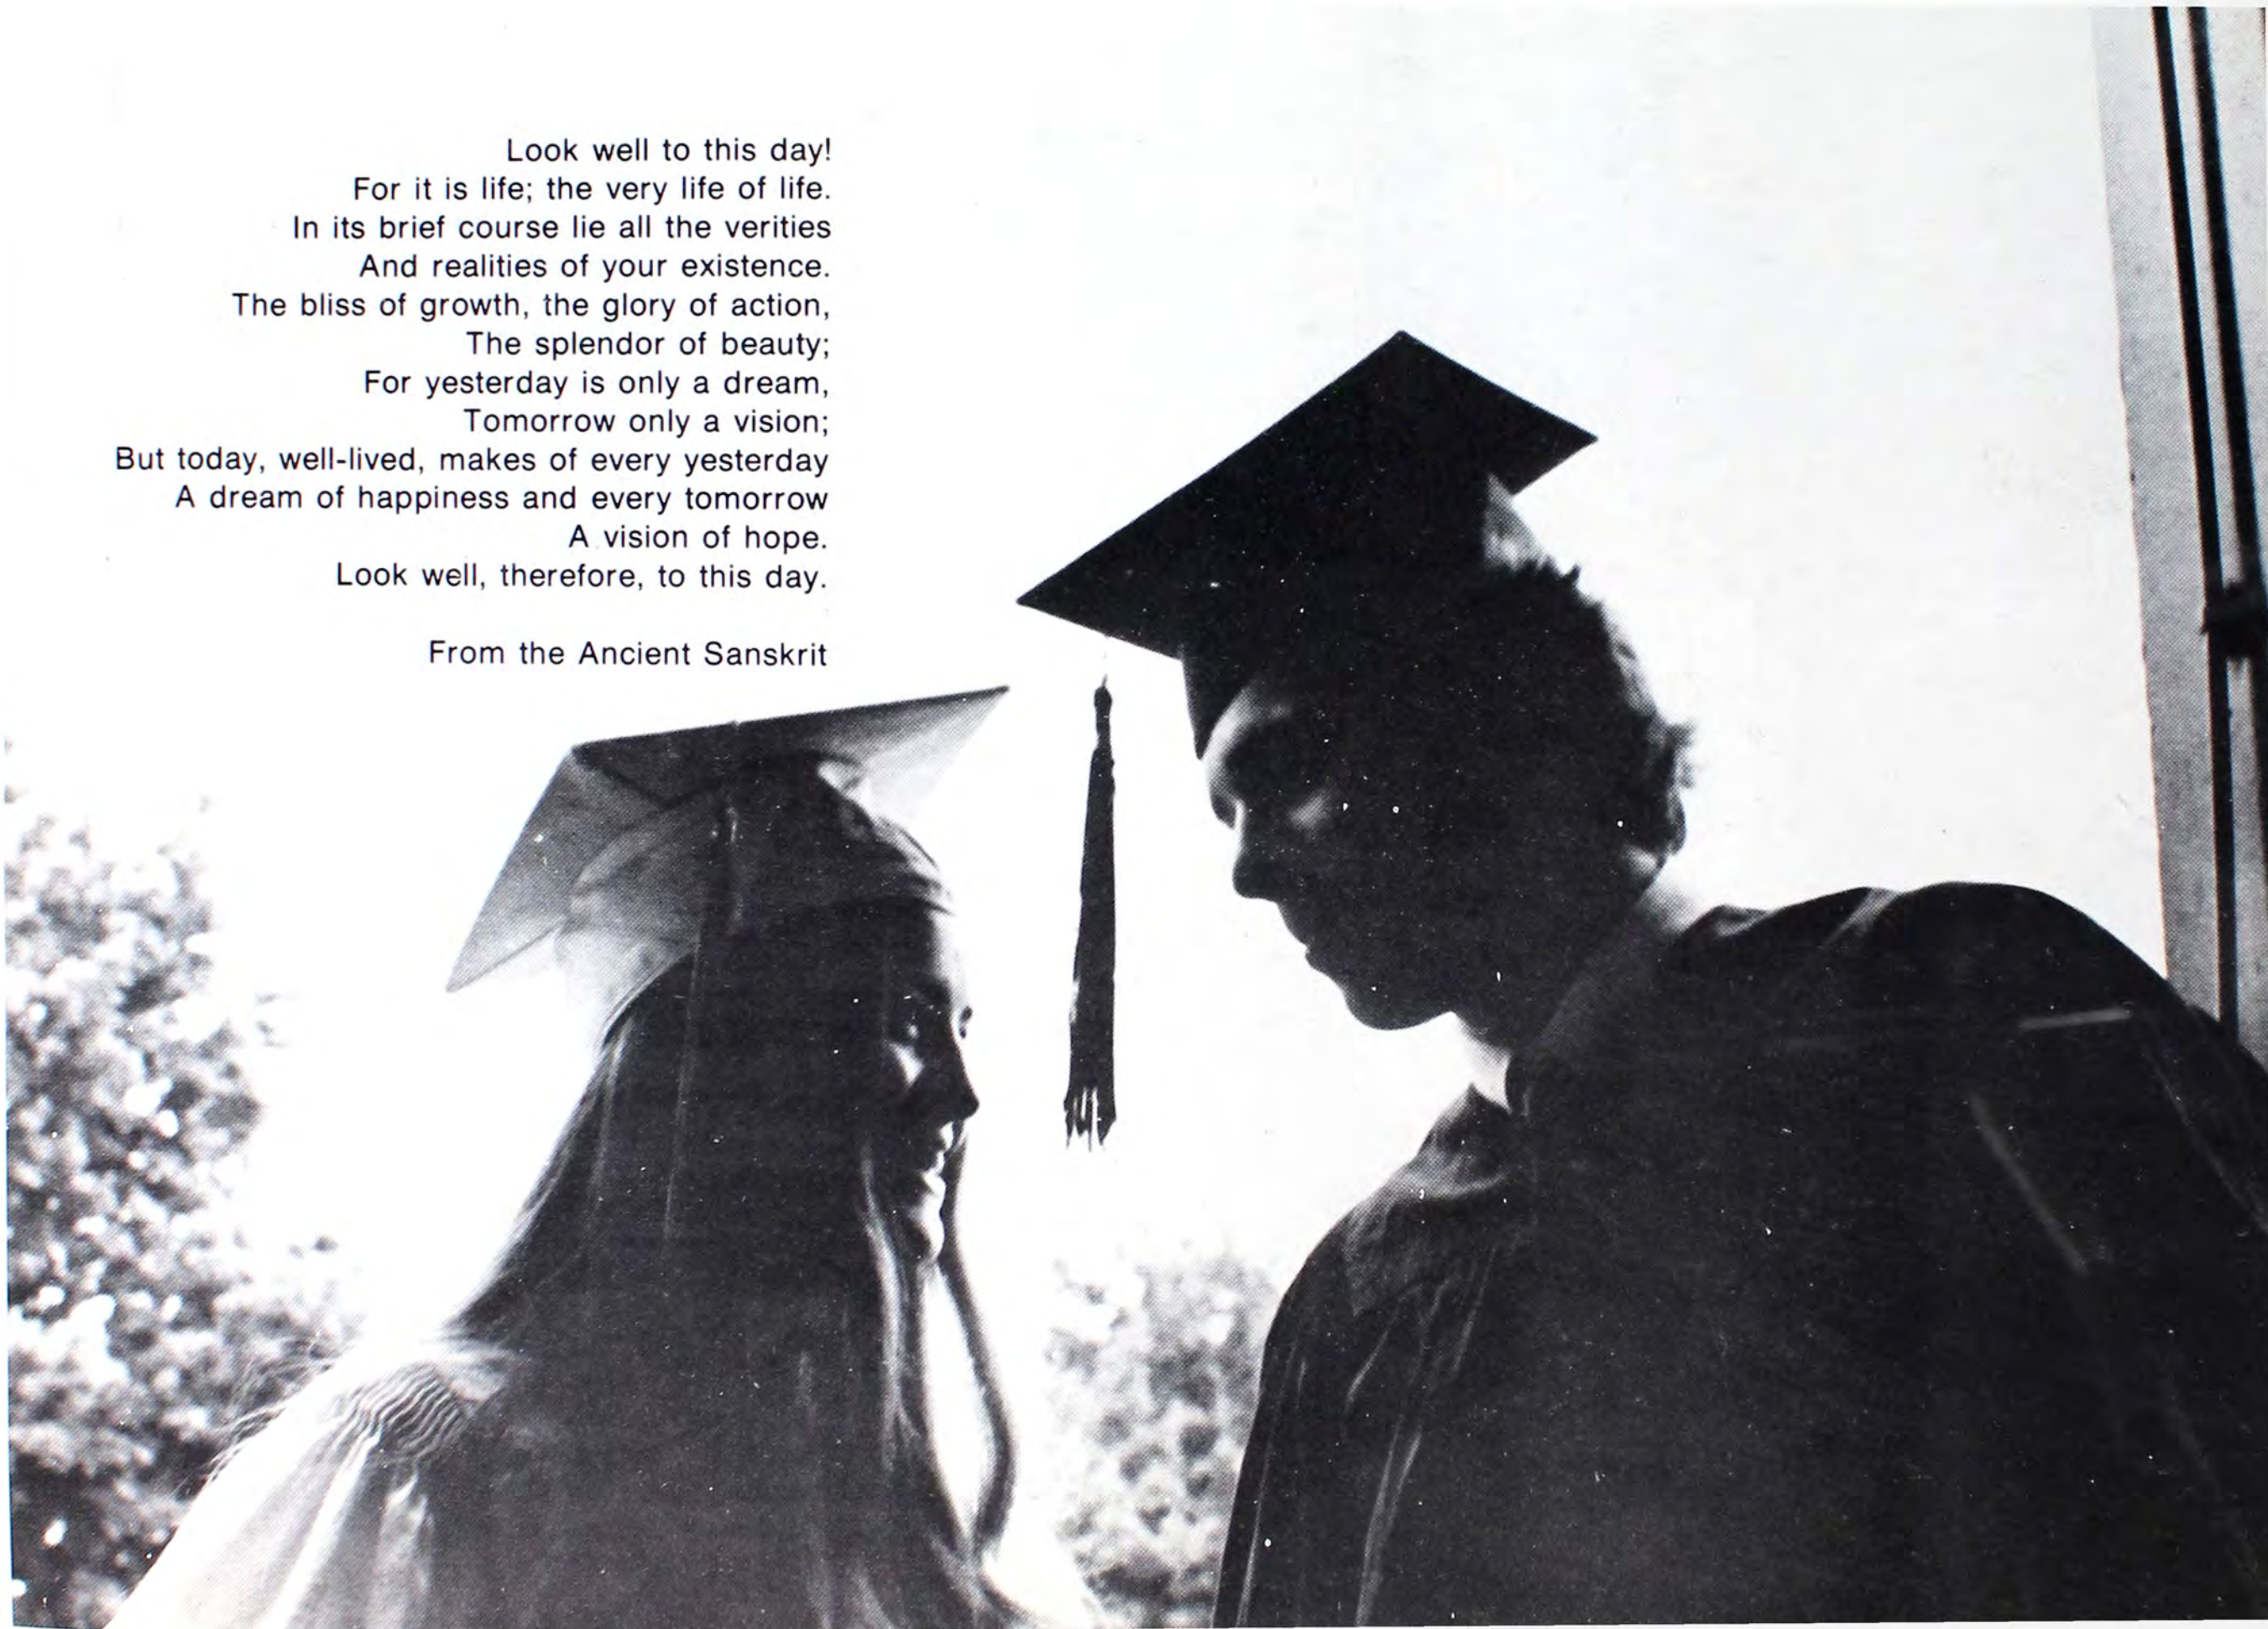

Compliments of House of Baskets.

Look well to this day!
For it is life; the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the verities
And realities of your existence.
The bliss of growth, the glory of action,
The splendor of beauty;
For yesterday is only a dream,
Tomorrow only a vision;
But today, well-lived, makes of every yesterday
A dream of happiness and every tomorrow
A vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day.

From the Ancient Sanskrit

Your goal the sky,
Your aim the stars.
